

MAYOR TRYING TO SETTLE THE STRIKE

San Francisco is Still in Throes of Disturbance That is Serious.

NEITHER SIDE TO ARBITRATE

First Car Sent Out, Manned by Strike-Breakers, Was Target of Attack, but Police Interfere—Many Victims Will Die—Ready to Call Troops.

SACRAMENTO, CAL., May 8.—Adjutant-General Lauck received the following telegram from Governor Gillette last night: "Things look serious. Have everything ready to move if necessary. As heretofore take every precautionary measure."
"JAMES N. GILLETTE."

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., May 8.—A conference was held in the Mayor's office to-day between Mayor Schmitz, Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads, and Richard Cornelius, president of the Carriers' Union. The Mayor proposed that the case be submitted to a committee of fifty citizens, to be appointed by him. President Calhoun did not accept the suggestion, but stated that he would see his colleagues in reference to the matter and give an answer later. President Cornelius said that while he had no objection to the appointment of such a committee, he could not agree to its acting as a board of arbitration. The Mayor, in closing the discussion, declared his intention of appointing the committee, regardless of the opinion of either Calhoun or Cornelius.

At 2:50 o'clock this afternoon two cars, manned by strike-breakers, left the car barn at Oak and Broderick Streets, going west toward the ocean beach. The two cars finished their trips at 4:40 o'clock, and were then run into the car barn.

The trip was made without much difficulty. At one point a man in a buggy drew a pistol, but a dozen policemen were after him before he had time to shoot. The man dropped the revolver and ran, but was soon captured.

At another place, a carpenter working on a building threw a hatchet at one of the cars. He was a prisoner in less than a minute.

A telephone lineman driving a wagon blocked the cars and tried to hit a mounted policeman with a pair of heavy pliers. He was clubbed into submission and arrested.

The temper of the police was radically different from yesterday. To-day they showed a disposition to watch the cars and prevent union men from throwing missiles. Each car was manned by half a dozen men, none of whom was armed.

Four More Will Die.
Of the twenty-five people injured in yesterday's fight between strike-breakers and the crowd, reports from the hospitals to-day indicate that four more will die. Nearly all the other injuries proved to be superficial, and most of the wounded have been removed to their homes.

Thornwell Mullaly, assistant to President Calhoun, of the United Railroads, stated to-day that the company had a number of affidavits showing that the shooting yesterday was begun by persons in the crowd trying to obstruct the movement of street cars, and not by the men who were operating them.

NEW YORK STRIKE STILL ORDERLY

Steamship Companies and Business Suffer, but Men Keep Within Law.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Not since the Brooklyn car strike riots has there been such fighting on the other side of the river as happened to-night when nearly 600 Italians and Poles joined battle in the Italian quarter, near Metropolitan Avenue, Williamsburg. Three patrolmen were seriously injured, and when their comrades had broken up the riot, thirty-five strikers had been sent to the Williamsburg Hospital and twelve more locked up in a police station.

NEW YORK, May 8.—The contest between the trans Atlantic and coastwise steamship companies and the striking longshoremen, which followed the refusal of the former to grant a wage increase of approximately 33-1/3 per cent., continued to-day to the disadvantage of both parties. While the men remained idle several ships were obliged to sail with partial cargoes. With the services of the crews and such other help as could be picked up the work of loading progressed slowly, and much freight was necessarily refused. Merchants throughout the country are feeling the delay, it is said. Contracts are maturing with the fulfillment of their conditions and orders are piling in with no immediate prospect of being filled.

The liners sailed as scheduled to-day. They included the Baltic, of the White Star Line, for Liverpool; Noordam, of the Holland-America Line, for Rotterdam; the French liner Rome, for Marseilles; and the Italian Brazil, for Naples and Genoa.

Though probably 10,000 men are idle, there was comparatively little disorder to-day. The leaders of the strikers have shown a disposition to check any outbreak against men who are working, and in one instance to-day several strikers surrounded two workers who were armed and caused the arrest of the two and later appeared against the men in court.

COURT TURNS DOWN PLEA OF HAYWOOD

Defense's Motion For Bill of Particulars Denied by Judge Wood.

SAID REQUEST CAME TOO LATE

Formal Trial of Miner Charged With Instigating Assassination of Ex-Governor Steunenberg Opens To-Day—May Be Difficult to Secure a Jury.

BOISE, IDAHO, May 8.—By overruling to-day the motion of the defense for a bill of particulars, setting forth what overt acts, if any, there were to connect the accused with the murder of former Governor Frank Steunenberg, Judge Fremont Wood, of the District Court of Ada county, cleared the way for the trial of William D. Haywood, secretary of the Western Federation of Miners, which will begin to-morrow morning.

Judge Wood held that the request of Haywood's counsel for a more explicit statement of the charges against the prisoners came too late, regardless of whether it might have been entertained at an earlier stage of the proceedings. In cases where bills of particulars are allowable, Judge Wood, who is to preside over the trial of the accused miners, declared the motions must be made before the indictments are pleaded to and before the cases are set for trial.

Haywood is the first of four men accused of complicity in the Steunenberg murder to be tried. The others—Meyer Perlthorne and Orchard, the last of whom is said to have made a confession—will be tried as circumstances dictate, following the conclusion of the proceedings against Haywood.

Prisoner Is Ready.
The prisoner, his counsel and the attorneys specially retained to present the case, placed the cause of the Steunenberg State are ready for the long ordeal in court. The first, and one of the great tasks of the court, is to procure a jury, and that will be commenced to-morrow morning as soon as Sheriff Hodgins has located the formal jury opening the court.

The victim of the Caldwell assassination, long a conspicuous figure in the political life of the State, was possibly known to hundreds of citizens of Ada county, and personal alignment and partisanship on the labor question, in which the prisoner and his codefendants were for a long time active leaders, is general, so that it is at once a difficult task to find men free from the disqualifications that unfit them for the high duty of a juror.

Hard to Get a Jury.
Many men who know the community well and who add to their calculation the further handicap of apprehension of future violence for revenge, take the extreme view that it will be impossible to get a jury, but the weight of opinion is against this extreme conclusion.

One of the counsel for the prisoners said: "The broader the scope of the case offered by the State the better we shall be satisfied."

Nearly forty correspondents for press associations and newspapers have come here to report the case, and special wire arrangements have been made for the transmission of the dispatches.

No Crowds Arriving.
There was no great influx of visitors to-day. The newspaper and magazine writers and others whose business has called them here, arrived singly and in twos and threes during the last ten days.

All have been surprised at the existing lack of interest manifested by the citizens of this capital city of the State.

One finds on arriving here that the discussion is confined almost entirely to the newcomers.

This city is far removed from the mining country, railway communication, the Cour de Alamos and other districts being circuitous and in some instances, all but unavailable.

It is from among the farmers that the jury may be selected.

No Feeling Is Noted.
There is nothing on the surface to-night to indicate any feeling in any quarter of the county either for or against the prisoners. While the authorities of the county and State have undoubtedly laid certain plans to meet any emergency which may arise, they do not propose to act until they have to.

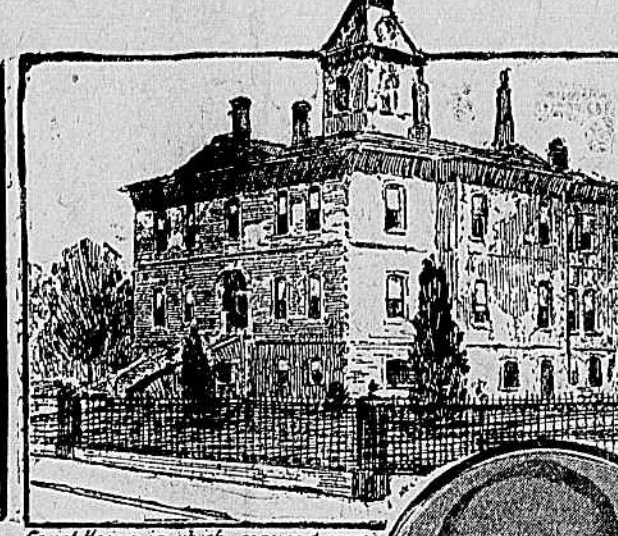

The streets to-night are patrolled only by the regular platoon of the city police force. The people are occupied by their business and social pleasures, and there is nothing to indicate that the trial, which has created such widespread interest throughout the world, is about to begin in this city.

A striking illustration of the unruffled atmosphere at Boise was the fact that this afternoon Mrs. Gooding, wife of Governor Gooding, attended a fashionable reception and luncheon at the Idanha Hotel, where she and the Chief Executive of the State are making their home. The proceedings in court to-day, with Haywood in attendance, attracted less than a score of persons outside of lawyers and newspaper men.

COURTHOUSE AT BOISE, THE TRIAL JUDGE AND COUNSEL FOR HAYWOOD AND THE COMMONWEALTH

Senator W. E. BORAH

Courthouse in which accused men will be tried

BLUES RECEPTION TO BE BRILLIANT

Nine Hundred Invitations Issued and Many Distinguished Guests Coming.

RECEIVE STANDS OF COLORS

Philadelphia's Crack Command to Attend—Dr. Page Will Speak.

The reception commemorating the one hundred and fourteenth anniversary of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, at the Masonic Temple to-morrow evening at 9 o'clock, will be one of the largest and most brilliant gatherings of the year in Richmond. The attendance of the battalion of three companies and staff and band in the new full dress uniforms of the command, together with representatives of several of the oldest volunteer military organizations in America, the Governor and his staff, commissioned officers of the other militia commands, and finally of hundreds of beautiful women, will combine to provide a magnificent spectacle and one well worth seeing.

Those Invited.
About nine hundred invitations have been issued to the reception, those sent out including the officers of the grade of captain and above in this State, the Governor, commander-in-chief of the Virginia volunteers, and his staff; many citizens, besides the members of the association, who have come to the rescue of the battalion in its recent misfortune, and scores of ladies.

The President of the United States was also invited, but sent his regrets in a handsomely engrossed formal card. Among the old commands in America whose officers are invited are the Essex Fusiliers of the Royal Canadian Regiment, Windsor, Ontario; the Putnam Phalanx of Hartford, Conn.; the Governor's Foot-Guard of Hartford and the Governor's Foot-Guard of New Haven; Boston; the Washington Grays Battalion of Philadelphia, and the Fayetteville Light Infantry of Fayetteville, N. C.

A delegation from the Artillery Corps, Washington Grays, of Philadelphia, which organization will present a stand of colors to the Blues, are expected to arrive in the city to-morrow, and will be received at the station by a committee from the battalion.

The committee from the Grays consists of Major A. L. Williams, Lieutenant and Battalion Adjutant J. Howard Reeve, Sergeant Horace J. Inman and Major George B. Zane, Jr., president of the association; Major E. W. Howles, commander of the battalion; Captain Russell H. Palmer, of Company A; Captain R. Page Burwell, of Company B, and Captain J. Lloyd Kent, of Company C.

Dr. Page to Speak.
The anniversary will be marked by the presentation to the battalion by the Blues' Association of a stand of State colors. Dr. Thomas Nelson Page, making the presentation address; and of a stand of national colors by the Washington Grays, of Philadelphia, which will be presented by one of the officers named above. Major E. W. Howles, commander of the battalion, will make the address receiving the gifts.

Music for the occasion will be contributed by the Blues Band, an organization of twenty-five musicians, who are uniformed in the same way as the battalion. The band will appear for the first time in the brilliant new full-dress uniforms, which almost without exception fit splendidly.

At the reception light refreshments will be served.

(Continued on Second Page.)

HOUSE DEFEATS SUFFRAGE PLAN

Florida Amendment to Constitution Killed by Large Majority.

TALLAHASSEE, FLA., May 8.—Senator Heard's resolution, proposing the amendment of the State Constitution limiting suffrage to white male citizens, which passed the Senate several weeks ago, was defeated by the House to-day by a vote of 17 to 14.

MR. RYAN PURCHASES JAMESTOWN BONDS

That Is General Belief, Though Not Officially Confirmed—His Pictures Prominent.

NO POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL

Emphatically Denies That Mr. Ryan Contemplates Establishing Such Institution.

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION GROUNDS, May 8.—After a meeting of the board of directors of the Jamestown Exposition this evening it was announced that all arrangements have been completed for the issuance and sale of bonds of the exposition to the extent of $400,000. The board of directors made a detailed report to the directors on the financial condition of the exposition and the arrangements that have been made for disposing of the bonds. It was demonstrated to the directors by the report that $400,000 would be sufficient for the completion of the exposition in detail. The directors express themselves as well pleased with the outlook. While it yet lacks official confirmation, Thomas F. Ryan, it is generally believed, will secure a part or all of the bonds, either directly or through an agent. His pictures of the financier are now to be seen in the exposition offices.

It was emphatically denied here to-night that Ryan contemplated securing the Exposition grounds and buildings after the close of the show for the purpose of establishing a polytechnic school.

Virginia Commission Meets.
Governor Swanson and the Virginia State Commission had an all-day session at the Virginia Building to-day. Their time was taken up mainly with routine matters. Some of the arrangements for Virginia Day, June 12th, were made. It has been determined to have on that day the largest parade to be held at the Exposition. There will be five thousand soldiers and sailors in line, including the State militia, the regulars encamped at the grounds, and the American and foreign sailors. Among the other features will be an address by Governor Swanson, and the reading of an original poem by Thomas Nelson Page of Washington, written for the occasion.

Every provision is being made by the commission to give all who visit the Virginia Building a cordial reception. Mrs. Swanson will be the hostess most of the time, and in her absence Mrs. William R. Beale will make it pleasant for the many visitors to the building.

Italians Welcome Duke.
The Duke de Abruzzi, commanding the Italian squadron, now in Hampton Roads, received aboard of his flagship, the Varese, to-day a commission from the local Italian colony, presented by Italian Vice-Consul Arturo Parati, who formally welcomed the Duke to Norfolk, and extended to him the hospitality of the Italian residence in Virginia. The commission was composed of Dr. R. Buglietti, S. Pesci, F. Gagnone, P. Rotondi, A. Lagiglia and S. Puppura.

The Duke de Abruzzi this afternoon received officially aboard of the Varese Vice-Admiral Ijima, commanding the Japanese fleet.

(Continued on Second Page.)

SHIP WRECKED, BUT ALL SAVED

No Loss of Life on French Steamer Poitou, on the Coast of Uruguay.

MARSEILLES, May 8.—According to dispatches received here from the agents of the company that owned the French steamer Poitou, wrecked on the coast of Uruguay, all the passengers of the vessel, as well as the crew, are safe. The passengers are being transferred by steamer to Buenos Ayres. The crew will remain on board until all hopes of refloating the vessel are abandoned. The dispatches say there has been no loss of life. There were 160 passengers on board the Poitou.

CHISOLM BEGINS HIS TERM IN PENITENTIARY

ATLANTA, GA., May 8.—Alexander R. Chisolm, the defaulting teller of the First National Bank of Birmingham, Ala., who was found guilty of embezzling $100,000 from the bank and who was sentenced to six years' imprisonment in the Federal prison in Atlanta, was brought here to-day to begin his sentence.

WOUNDS TWO AND IS HIMSELF KILLED

Triple Tragedy Grows Out of Domestic Trouble in Private Henry Hamilton's Family.

WIFE NOT EXPECTED TO LIVE

Hamilton Shoots Her Three Times—Automatic Shotgun Turned on Him.

WILMINGTON, N. C., May 8.—A special to the Star from Southport to-night says that this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the United States army post at Fort Caswell, Private Henry Hamilton, of the Eighteenth Company, Coast Artillery, recently transferred to the garrison there, shot his wife three times, seriously wounding her. He also shot and seriously wounded Corporal Watson, of the Thirty-first Company, and was himself killed by Company Sergeant Overwald, brother-in-law of Hamilton's wife. Domestic troubles between Hamilton and his wife resulted in a quarrel at their home on the post grounds to-day, and this afternoon, leaving Overwald in the abdomen, Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the abdomen. Overwald, who had been telling him he was going to shoot his wife, he proceeded to carry out his threat. After being shot once in the hip, Mrs. Hamilton ran out of the house and was picked up by Corporal Watson, who had been to post a new guard. Hamilton at once opened fire on Watson, who fell with a wound in his breast. Hamilton then shot his wife again, the ball taking effect in the